

Media registration open for World Fencing Championships 2011

Media registration is now online for the 2011 World Fencing Championships in Catania, Italy, 8 October to 16 October.

Credentialed media interested in attending the event should register on through the online media accreditation form (<http://acc.ophardt-team.org/press/>). A photograph must be submitted during the registration process. Approved applicants will be informed via e-mail and be able to pick up their accreditation at the venue.

Media representatives may book their accommodation with the organiser through booking@jumbograndieventi.it

The registration will close on September 8, 2011.

A media information guide and the official press kit will soon be available on www.fie.ch and the event website www.cataniafencing2011.com that will be launched soon. Both will be updated on a regular basis in the lead up to the event.
